TENNESSEE 25,000.

FOLLOWS CLOSE UPON ALABAMA'S CLORIOUS RECORD.

Net Democratic Gain Over the Vote Cast For Turner, in 1894 of 15,041. County Fusion Ticket split. Under Democratic Rule.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 7.—Up to midnight to-night reports have been received here from forty counties. Most of these reports are from counties in Middle and West Tennessee, but they show substantial Democratic gains over the vote cast for Turner in 1894. Based on the gains so far reported the Democratic nominees for the County Executive Apprais will have 25,000 to 30,000 majority.

In a table showing the majorities in thirty-seven counties the Democrats make gains in twenty-six while five counties show Republican losses. Two counties show Republican gains and four Democratic losses. The Democratic gains and Republican losses as far as heard from figure out 10,721, while the Democratic loss and Republican gains only total 1,680. This makes a net Democratic gain over the vote cast for Turner in 1894 of 15,041.

The Democrats have more than held their own in the matter of selecting county officers. In several counties fusion tickets were buried under Democratic ballots, while fusionists only triumphed on a few places.

M'KINLEY ON SILVER.

From a speech in the House of Representatives, June 14, 1896.—Congressional Record, Vol. 21, Page 6, 447.

I am for the largest use of silver in the currency of the country. I would not dishonor it; I would give it equal credit and honor with gold. I would make no discrimination. I would utilize both metals as money and discredit neither. I want the double standard.

DEATH OF CY BROWN.

A Prominent Republican Leader Passes Away.

Mr. Cyrus M. Brown, Christian county's representative in the Legislature, and a prominent Republican leader, died of flux in this city at 11 o'clock Sunday night, after an illness of about ten days. His condition was considered serious until a few days before his death, when the disease took a fatal turn.

Mr. Brown was born February 26, 1848. He obtained a practical education, and for ten years was a prominent teacher of the county, in which he was eminently successful, and during which time he developed a literary talent of no mean order. In 1880 he was elected to the office of Sheriff, and was reelected in 1882. He was later along elected Circuit Clerk, serving a term of six years.

He was one of the best known men in this section, and had a host of friends who will learn with sincere regret of his demise.

The funeral procession left the city with the remains at 3 o'clock p. m., yesterday, for the family burying ground, near Crofton, where the interment took place. The pall bearers were: H. H. Goley, J. P. Frowe, W. H. Ryan, O. H. Anderson, L. C. Crayven, J. E. Cliburn, John Feld, Jr., and John W. Wicks.

Mrs. Oscar Lyons, of Mayfield, who surprised the world by giving birth to quintuplets, and later shocked it by exhibiting the embalmed bodies for a fee, reported as being "very mad" at the course of a New York paper which had secured interviews with prominent people denouncing the exhibition as barbarous. However, she and her husband will not discontinue the exhibition, and Paedocoph people will soon be given an opportunity of seeing the revolting sight.—Times.

Robert Pollock, the fourteen-year-old stepson of Ed Davis, a coal miner of Central City, while working in a saw-pit of the Central City Planning M. L., came in contact with the saw and his left arm was sawed off just below the elbow.

Horses Killed By a Bear.

An unusual case of ferocity displayed by a domestic animal is reported to have occurred a day or two ago in the vicinity of Salton's Rest, in the lower portion of the county, on the farm of the widow Minor.

Two fine mares were grazing in a lot, when they were attacked by a rapacious bear. One of the mares was struck on the leg and the flesh ripped down, causing the animal to fall, when the maddened hog literally cut the mare to pieces with its tusks, making twenty-one wounds. The other mare received one incision of the hog's tusks deep into the side, but was not sufficient to cause death. A male was also attacked after the two horses had been killed, but after receiving two wounds the male managed to escape from the lot.—Clarkeville Leaf Chronicle.

Safe in the Asylum.

Thomas Brown, the Webster county farmer, who in a fit of frenzy attempted to murder his wife and child and mother-in-law, at a home near Dixon, last week, was brought to this city Saturday night and confined in the asylum, having been adjudged of unsound mind by a jury. He had attempted to kill his victims with an axe handle, and leaving them for dead went and gave himself up to a neighbor. He was tried for his crimes but was declared crazy. It is thought his wife will recover. He is only 30 years old.

Cutting Knife Each Other.

A notorious affray that may result serious took place at the L. & N. depot Saturday evening just after the 6:30 train going South had passed. William Ware, the colored janitor at several tobacco offices, came upon his wife in conversation with Mose Lewis, colored, upon whom he used his knife freely. In return Lewis cut Ware in the left side inflicting a long, deep gash, that may result fatally, jealousy was the cause of the trouble. Lewis' wounds are not considered dangerous.

Two Crushed to Death.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 6.—James Green, bridge carpenter on the O. & N. railroad, and John Ford, laborer, were killed this afternoon at Pettit's, a station five miles from this city. They were engaged in building a trestle for a water tank, when the trestle fell, crushing them to death. Ford's body being cut in two. They were brought to Owensboro, an inquest held and their remains conveyed to Russellville, their home.

A Pastor Called.

The Christian church of Hopkinsville on Sunday morning formally called to the pastorate of the church Eld. H. G. Smith, of Missouri. Mr. Smith is a young man whose family consists of a wife and one child. There is no doubt that he will accept the call. He is expected to arrive the first of next month.

A Murderer Arrested.

James Lawrence, colored, who is wanted in Mississippi for a murder committed over two years ago, was arrested near Fredonia, by W. T. Ackridge, Saturday. His captor will receive a reward of $750. Lawrence will be taken back to Mississippi for trial.

Tell and Break His Arm.

A five-year-old son of Mr. J. F. Meacham, who lives a few miles east of the city, fell from a fence Friday night and fractured one of his arms.

Bryan and Sewall clubs are now being organized in all the towns. Princeton starts off one with 124 members. Harry Grubbs was killed in Anderson county by being thrown from his horse.

DR. CLARDY'S WALKOVER.

But One Ballot Needed to Give Him a Re-election.

Dr. J. D. Clardy was re-nominated at Madisonville yesterday as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second district. The county conventions of Wednesday had virtually settled all questions of doubt by apportioning the votes under the pro rata plan adopted in the call. The following table gives the official returns in all the counties, the fractions for convenience being reduced to decimals:

	CLARDY.	TANNER.
Christian	.2	0
Daviess	.106	.24
Hancock	2	1
Henderson	.169	.531
Hopkins	10	0
McLean	.5	.25
Union	.758	.142
Webster	.8	.15
Total	47.87	14.13

It will be seen that Dr. Clardy carried six of the eight counties. The only opposition at all formidable grew out of the defeat of Judge Yeaman in Christian county. The last week of the campaign was quite lively and exciting and nothing but Dr. Clardy's ability as a rapid organizer and his extensive acquaintance and local following in all the precincts kept him from having a doubtful race on his hands. If the contest had lasted a week longer and his opponents had been given an opportunity to bring out new candidates in Hopkins and Daviess, and still further complicate matters by working the Yeaman issue in Union and Webster counties, the result would have been extremely doubtful. Dr. Clardy was elected over E. G. Sebrin in 1894, receiving 18,363 votes to 10,881 for Sebrin. 4,585 for Turner, Populist, and 426 for Holmes, Prohibitionist. His plurality was 2,982. In the election of 1892 the Populist vote was 2,000 of these votes returned to the Democratic party in 1894 and last year the Populist vote dropped to 1,088 in the Governor's race. This year it is probable that no Populist candidate will be entered in the race and that Dr. Clardy will get all of these votes.

Frank, is a very weak candidate and will lose enough Republican votes to offset the defections from the Democratic party on the currency question and Clardy's majority this year will be not less than 6,000 and it may go as high as 8,000 or 10,000.

FIVE LEGAL LIGHTS.

BISHOP'S LOCAL ATTORNEYS WRITE A CARD.

Undertake to Lecture the Yeaman Delegates For Not Voting For Bishop—Allude a Verbal Agreement Not in the Written Contract.

A lengthy card appeared in a local paper Thursday signed by five distinguished members of the Legal fraternity—Messrs. C. H. Bush, W. R. Howell, Hunter Wood, W. M. Reed and T. J. Morrow. These gentlemen undertook to criticize the action of Messrs. Chas. M. Meacham and W. A. Wilgus for using their votes as Yeaman delegates in an attempt to force the withdrawal of Judge Bishop. Two of them, Messrs. Bush and Howell—were parties to the written agreement under which the vote of the county was divided. Messrs. Wood and Reed signed it as witnesses and Judge Morrow assisted in getting the parties together but left before the agreement was signed.

The gentlemen in their card admit all of the facts claimed in the agreement and seem to have rushed into print to salt each other's wounds.

Deny as they may, the fact remains that Messrs. Meacham and Wilgus acted under an agreement where they were urged to go into by the Bishop men, and they violated no part of that agreement or in any other manner failed to act in entire good faith.

When Mr. Meacham was conducted to the place of meeting by Judge Morrow, he found five Bishop men present and thinking there too many spiders for one poor fly he made some jocular remarks expressing doubt of his ability to cope with five Bishop men, all lawyers and political experts. While the gentlemen were explaining their proposition Mr. Wilgus arrived and it was submitted to him. Mr. Wilgus promptly declined to accept it, but all of the gentlemen except Judge Morrow urged, and finally Mr. Wilgus expressed himself in favor of the proposition and after a further conference was reluctantly agreed to by Mr. Meacham, with the understanding that every detail should be reduced to writing. This was done and the statement that Mr. Wilgus or Mr. Meacham agreed to any matter in the written agreement was not true. The agreement was rewritten two or three times to make it cover every point and the Bishop men entered into it with a will, with an occasional suggestion from the Yeaman men. There were no promises made that were not reduced to writing, the statement to the contrary notwithstanding. It was impossible to tell how the county would go at that time and neither side was in a position to take advantage of the other in drawing up the agreement, consequently both sides insisted that all points be covered fully.

The agreement provided that the Yeaman men entered into it to written agreement to let each side act "independent of the other," and at the same time confessed that they had made a verbal agreement to vote for Bishop as a second choice, is so plainly contrary to reason and in conflict with common sense that it is a relation upon the intelligence of the Yeaman men to even notice it seriously.

This point is the only one the gentlemen seemed to have attached much importance to in their card and since it is not founded on facts, there is really not much occasion for replying to this. We have previously given a truthful statement of the facts in the case and appeal to the written record to settle whatever question of veracity that may have been raised by these learned lawyers, who would have the public believe they could not jointly write a contract to convey the ideas of their clients.

As to the moral lecture the gentlemen attempted to deliver, we will only say we have clear consciences on the subject. If Mr. Meacham or Mr. Wilgus had ever "betrayed" anybody or failed to act in "good faith," or as "honorable" men during the twenty years they have lived in this community, they have failed to have their attention called to it. If those who now claim to have been "duped" by their own "transaction," have been equally fortunate we are willing to give a courteous hearing to their dissertation on morals and questions of honor, which would be better perhaps to drop that branch of the subject.

Messrs. Meacham and Wilgus made no agreement in written or verbal, to vote otherwise than "independent" of the Bishop side. The agreement is in the custody of one of the gentlemen who signed the card. Why was it not published? It speaks for itself. It is the only agreement made and covers the whole case. Under it the Yeaman delegates could not have been loyal if they had voted otherwise than as his interests demanded. His only hope was to force Bishop out of the race and then receive his votes in a stampede to beat White. If they had deserted him at the critical point, when he was still in the race, having been neither dropped nor withdrawn, it would have been political treachery and a violation of their plain instructions. They were instructed to "represent Yeaman" and not to save Bishop from an unusual right in the men would have the public believe.

Yeaman's race was never hopeless until the last ballot, when Bishop refused to withdraw and his friends in Christian county defeated Yeaman by refusing to change to him, even after 12 votes in Marshall and Meade—enough to nominate with Christian's votes—had been changed from Bishop to Yeaman. Bishop was clearly defeated and Yeaman could and would have been nominated but for the persistent refusal of a few men in the Christian county delegation to change. It is a fact that several of them succeeded in changing and it is also a fact that Judge Bishop himself had told them to give it to Yeaman if he couldn't get it but those who succeeded in following their rule or ruin policy and refused to change allowed the men on the delegation who had carried the county for Bishop, like Judge Morrow and Walter Southall, were ready to do so when they saw Judge Bishop was defeated. Since that people of Christian county have seen the prediction of the Kentuckian come true in the attempt by Henderson county to defeat Dr. Clardy, an attempt that has succeeded if there had been a little more time for the movement to spread to other counties, they realize that the Kentucky rule of "usual right" in the position it took and Messrs. Meacham and Wilgus have received many congratulations for the stand they took in the convention. These expressions of approval have come in some instances from those who were deluded into voting for Bishop, without knowing that they were aiding Dr. Clardy's nomination by inviting the opposition of Yeaman's friends in other counties. In the precinct meeting on July 3, the precinct meeting 460 and Yeaman 426 of the popular votes. Those who defeated Yeaman have as much to answer for as those who voted for him, who did not receive a vote in a majority of the counties of the district. The Yeaman delegates have no apology to offer. They are willing to stand by their records.

THE CONTRACT.

An Exact Copy of the Agreement Signed by Yeaman and Bishop's Friends.

It is agreed, and by between C. H. Bush and W. R. Howell, friends of W. S. Bishop, and C. M. Meacham and W. A. Wilgus, friends of Malcolm Yeaman,

That the twelve votes of Christian county, shall be divided and cast as follows in the Appellate District convention to be held in Hopkinsville, Ky., on July 31, 1896, to nominate a Democratic candidate for Court of appeals for the first Appellate District of Ky.

Each of said candidates, Bishop and Yeaman, shall be entitled to, and shall receive, twelve of the twelve votes of the county as shall be equal to the vote received by either of them in the county convention to be held in Hopkinsville, Ky., on July 27th, 1896, that is to say unit rule, shall not prevail as to the vote of said county, but each of said candidates shall receive twelve votes in the convention, his full strength and proportion of the forty-nine district delegate votes cast in said county convention.

And the friends of each of said candidates, shall have the right to name in said County convention, the delegates twelve in number, to be apportioned accordingly to the vote received by each candidate.

This agreement to be binding on the friends of each candidate, and we pledge ourselves to carry out this agreement in good faith.

This given under our hand, this July 28, 1896.

WITNESSES: C. H. Bush, W. R. Howell, W. M. Reed, Chas. M. Meacham, Hunter Wood, W. A. Wilgus.

M'GONIGAL'S DILEMMA.

Much Confused by the "Striking of the Town Clock."

"Phwat's the manin' of that?" said Policeman McGonigal to himself as he lazily pushed aside several bundles of shingles beneath which he had hidden to escape from the rain, and possibly to take a nap. "Phwat is the manin' that the new town clock do be after striking was three times running?" runs a story in the Washington Star.

It was late at night and Mr. McGonigal had been hired by the local temperance union to watch Casey's saloon for stray deacons and other outlaws. As he crouched among the bundles of shingles in the back yard waiting for the hour of two a. m., when his relief was due, his last waking remembrance was that the town clock struck "wan." In a few minutes, as he believed, he heard the bell again toll "wan," but when the third "wan" came booming through the air the McGonigal blood was up, and the remark quoted at the beginning of this tale was uttered. "Some blaggarin is shtriving to sport wid me, or melbe it's dreamin' Oi am." To assure himself of his facility of mind he rapidly and accurately ran over some detective formulas, in humble imitation of the late Sherlock Holmes. "It's cabbage they've had for supper; Oi know it by the schnell." It's beer they've been drinking began; Oi can tell it by the dhry feeling in me throat." Reassured by these practical tests, he became positive that his mind was clear as usual, but he was unequal to the solution of the problem of the three "wans" of the clock. To solve the puzzle he crept up to the back door of the saloon, where his presence excited no comment. Calling softly to Mrs. Casey, she approached with a mug of beer wherewith to propitiate the majesty of the law.

"Did ye hear the dom clock strolke wan the mint ago, Mrs. Casey?"

"Oi did not, but I heard it strike half-past wan, Mr. McGonigal."

"Then Oi was dreamin'," said McGonigal. "Oi thought Oi heard it strolke wan. Did ye hear it strolke wan awhile afore that, Mrs. Casey?"

"Oi did wan."

"That's right; so did Oi. Ye didn't hear it strolke wan afore wan, did ye, Mrs. Casey?"

"Oi did not; Oi heard it strolke half-past twelve."

"Then it's sick, Oi am, Mrs. Casey, and me head is not right wid me heard work. Oi thought Oi heard the clock strolke wan three times runnin'. Would ye give me another sup of beer afore Oi go home?"

A Sketch of Charles Lamb.

As his frame, so was his genius. It was as fit for thought as could be, and equally as unfit for action; and this rendered him melancholy, apprehensive, humorous, and willing to make the best of everything, as it was, both from tenderness of heart and abhorrence of alteration. His understanding was too great to admit an absurdity; his frame was not strong enough to deliver it from a fear. His sensibility to strong contrasts was the foundation of his humor, which was that of a wit at once melancholy and willing to be pleased. He would beard a superstition and shudder at the old phantasm while he did it. One could have imagined him cracking a jest in the teeth of a ghost, and then melting into thin air himself, out of sympathy with the awful. His humor and his knowledge both were those of Hamlet, of Moliere, of Carlin, who shook a city with laughter, and, in order to divert his melancholy, was recommended to go and hear himself.—Leigh Hunt's Autobiography.

First Man Dressmaker.

The first man who made a name as a woman's dressmaker was Rhombert, the son of a Bavarian peasant from the neighborhood of Munich. One day in 1730 a beautiful carriage appeared on the boulevard of Paris with an escutcheon in the shape of a pair of corsets and an open pair of scissors painted on the panel of each door. This was Rhombert's coat of arms. He owed his rapid success to his genius for concealing and remedying defects of figure. He left an income of 50,000 francs a year to his heirs.

Forests and Health.

In the French departments where forests have been cut down there has been a marked decrease in the number of births and an increase in that of deaths during 30 years. In the last five years the excess of deaths over births was 80,882, and the mortality in the departments was nine times as great as in the rest of France. M. Jeannel infers from this that the forests are an important factor in the health of France.

FOR JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS,
JAMES D. WHITE,
OF BALLARD.

WE DEMAND the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard silver dollar shall be a full legal tender equally with gold for all debts, public and private.—Democratic National Plat form, 1896.

Free coinage means that silver and gold bullion shall be coined without charge by the United States mints.

Unlimited coinage means that all the gold and all the silver present at the United States mints shall be coined into money.

The ratio of 16 to 1 means that the number of grains of pure silver in a silver dollar shall be sixteen times the number of grains of pure gold in a gold dollar.

By a full legal tender is meant that when a debtor offers either gold or silver to a creditor in any sum, whatever, the creditor is bound to accept the same and discharge the debtor from his liability.

Posters headed "Notice of Democratic Mass Meeting," have been put up in this city, calling for a "convention" August 15 at the court house. These circulars claim to be posted "By order of the Democratic State Executive Committee." In so far as they claim to be issued under the authority of the Democratic organization, the circulars are based on false pretences. They are issued by bolters and disorganizers, who have no official communication with the Democratic party. They cannot get a place on the official ballots except by petition and cannot use either the name or the device of the Democratic party under the laws of the State of Kentucky. No honorable man who went into the Democratic convention in this county on May 25 can engage in this bolting movement without violating his implied pledge of honor to support the party nominees. No true Democrat will be there.

The bolting gold standard faction of the Democratic party will hold its convention at Indianapolis September 2 and put out a ticket. It is said Gen. Briggs, of Wisconsin, and Gen. Buckner, of Kentucky, will be the nominees. The bolters call themselves "National Democrats," having surrendered the term "sound money" to the Republicans. The news that the goldbug vote is really to be divided is almost too good to believe.

The Courier-Journal's "Old Lyan" Democrats are having a hard time finding a name to suit them. On the question of platform they will have no difficulty. They will simply adopt the McKinley currency plank.

A SENSELESS FEUD.

A senseless political feud has been created between Henderson and Christian counties, which it may take years to eradicate, through the failure of Hon. Malcolm Yeaman to secure the solid support of Christian county in his race for judge of the court of appeals. Though Dr. Clardy and his immediate personal and political friends did all in their power to nominate Mr. Yeaman, some unreasonable people in Henderson county undertook to have revenge on Christian by doing their utmost to defeat Dr. Clardy, and succeeded in carrying a majority of the Henderson county precincts against him.

It is true that Mr. Yeaman lost the appellate judgeship through the vote of Christian county men, but Dr. Clardy and his friends did all in their power to avert this. They were the best supporters that Yeaman had, taking far greater interest in his race than many of those in Henderson who had got upon their legs and howled after it was too late to do him any good. Even after these revengeful Henderson people turned upon Clardy and tried to beat him, these Clardy men were working night and day to accomplish the nomination of Yeaman, and they came much nearer doing it than anybody supposed they could, in view of the lukewarm support given Yeaman at Henderson. Mr. Yeaman was by far the ablest man offering for appellate court judge, and it is a shame that Christian county votes defeated him. Nevertheless, the conduct of Henderson in stabbing Clardy after all he and his friends had done for Yeaman was far more shameful. The feud thus made is deplorable. The men in Christian county who defeated Mr. Yeaman have placed themselves on a permanent black list all through the Second district, but these Christian county men, who so ably managed Yeaman's campaign won the respect and admiration of the whole district. What can those in Henderson county, who failed to do serviceable work for Yeaman, and yet tried to slaughter those who did, expect in the future of this district?—Owensboro Messenger.

H. Clay Evans' county, including the city of Chattanooga, west Democratic by 300 majority last week and the result was followed up by the announcement that Mr. Evans would not be a candidate for Governor. H. Clay is no fool and he can see that this is going to be a Democratic year and that Bob Taylor will carry Tennessee by 300 majority.

A Louisville goldbug has hit upon the scheme of paying off his hands in Mexican dollars at bullion value, as argument against silver. This proves nothing, except that it is the stamp of the government that makes the money. Mexican dollars are just legal tender in this country and consequently are not money.

Gen. Simon Butler Buckner will attract no attention except to cause a feeling of disgust among Democrats who have honored Gen. Buckner with their votes in the past. In this contest for financial freedom the gentleman is too rich to be a Democrat and the plutocrats can take him.

One of the Calloway delegates who attended the recent convention here was Mr. Jas. H. Coleman, who is considered the ablest as well as the handsomest member of the Murray bar. While here Mr. Coleman took occasion to formally launch his 1897 boom for commonwealth's attorney.

The Louisville correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer is authority for the statement that Judge B. L. D. Guffy, of the Court of Appeals, has declared for Bryan and Sewall and says Butler county will go Democratic.

Senator Squire, of Washington, has come out flatfooted for Bryan and Sewall, making the eighth Republican Senator to so declare himself. The tide is already rolling too high to be ever turned back.

A white man was sold at auction in Kentucky last week, and yet we are told that "the existing gold standard must be preserved." Let's try something else.

Senator Gibson, of Maryland, has declared for Bryan and Sewall and predicts that Maryland will go Democratic.

The Madisonville papers are agitating the question of a railroad from that place to some point on the I. C., formerly the C. O. & S. W. road.

WHEAT AT ONE DOLLAR A BUSHEL.

The New York Sun, edited by Chas. A. Dana, is known as one of the ablest newspapers in the United States. It is also known as a corruption paper. It fought for a protection, against the income tax and is one of the strongest gold standard papers in the country advocating the election of McKinley. The Sun last week contained the following editorial on the results of free silver.

"THE OWNERS OF REAL ESTATE AND OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY WILL NEVER LOSE NOR GAIN BY AN ALTERATION IN THE MONEY STANDARD. HENCE EVERY ONE WHO HAS MONEY AT HIS DISPOSAL CAN PROTECT HIMSELF AGAINST LOSS THROUGH FREE SILVER BY CONVERTING HIS MONEY INTO LAND, HOUSES AND MERCHANDISE. IF HE BORROWS MORE MONEY AND USES IT FOR THE SAME PURPOSES, HE WILL MAKE A PROFIT ON THE TRANSACTION AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MAN FROM WHOM HE BORROWS. UNDER THE REGIMEN OF SILVER AT 16 TO 1 A FARM OR A HOUSE OR A HOUSE AND LOT NOW WORTH $10,000 WILL BE WORTH $20,000, A BUSHEL OF WHEAT NOW SELLING FOR FIFTY CENTS WILL SELL FOR $1 AND SUGAR, COFFEE, TEA AND SIMILAR ARTICLES WILL ADVANCE IN THE SAME PROPORTION."

The above is a free and full confession of all that free silver men claim. It is an admission that the gold standard has reduced the price of all real estate and farm products and that the free and unlimited coinage of silver will restore the price. The farmers of this country want their wheat to go to $1 a bushel and all other products in that proportion. This is exactly what they are fighting for in this contest as they cannot make a living at present prices. Every farmer in Kentucky no matter what his previous political affiliation, should study this confession of this gold standard McKinley organ of New York and vote for Bryan and Sewall. According to the Sun this will be a vote for $1 a bushel for wheat, increased value of farm lands and all farm products. Our Democratic readers should see that the Republican farmers need this article from the Sun.—Elizabethtown News.

The total crop of watermelons marketed by Posey county, Ind., growers will average one thousand car loads. The hot weather has caused a great demand for this fruit and prices have been somewhat increased. The Posey county melon crop has been more profitable this year than the wheat crop.

Tobacco News.

HOPKINSVILLE MARKET.
(Reported by J. H. Egerton, of Alfred Lewis & Co., Leaf Dealers.)

Hopkinsville, Aug. 6.—Continued hot weather prevails and it was almost unbearable throughout the three days' sale. The offerings were light on very poor nondescript tobacco and there was very little life and animation on the market. Have to repeat the market irregular and lower on all grades. While there was less good tobacco on sale than any time this year the demand was not so good as heretofore and prices ruled near inside figures. Reports are coming in from all sections that worms are so numerous that it is impossible to keep them off the plants with the present labor and the hot rays of the sun are so severe that it is very difficult to work and especially to get extra help to work. As fast as they go over it and get back to the starting point they find as many worms as they did before. In some cases they are plowing the crop under in order to save the other from the ravages of the worms. In other cases the have turned out part of the crop for the destroyers to eat at will. Some farmers are using the pruning knife to save the crop from the mighty worms, therefore the acreage will be cut short from the first estimate. Receipts exceedingly light this week.

L. B. LENT'S CIRCUS.
Will Exhibit Here Next Thursday, Aug.

The Indianapolis Journal says of Lent's show, to be here Thursday: "The outfit is entirely new, from the train of specially conducted cars to the cook tents."

The performance was frequently applauded. Among the performers may be named many male and female stars of arena fame. Space forbids of anything like a full enumeration of the many acts and features. All told there were thirty acts—male and female arrival artists, really funny clown, expert gymnasts, trained horses, dogs, and bit of everything that is interesting and much that is new. A particular pleasing feature of the show yesterday was the entire absence of all followers and gamblers, so far as the representation observed, and ladies and children unobscured were accorded courteous treatment.

Mr. C. G. Bowman and sister, Miss Florence, and Misses Patrick, of Jackson, Ky., visited relatives here last week. They left for Mammoth Cave Sunday.
